

PRESS RELEASE

Eichhorn Attends Conference

Eileen R. Eichhorn GG, a Certified Senior Member of NAJA recently attended the National Association of Jewelry Appraisers 34th ACE© It Annual Mid-Year Conference in Providence-Warwick RI.

The Association, consisting of national and international members is dedicated to the maintenance of professional standards, ethics and education in the field of jewelry appraising. All members must adhere to the professional Code of Ethics of the Association and all appraisal assignments must be performed under the constraints of this Code.

This year's conference concentrated on antique and period jewelry. Lectures were given on valuing elements of jewelry of various eras including Art Deco, Art Nouveau, Arts and Crafts and the Modernist period. Various speakers also shared vintage wristwatches and antique pocket watches in their presentations.

Ms. Eichhorn has performed a variety of appraisals and appraisal related services at Eichhorn Jewelry in Decatur for many years. Among those are appraisals for insurance, fair market value, divorce, collateral, qualitative reports and casualty loss.